

PRESS RELEASE

ACUTUS LLP ATTENDED THE 3RD ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF ABACUS WORLDWIDE, AN INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTING, CONSULTING AND LEGAL FIRMS

1 November 2015, SINGAPORE – Acutus is pleased to announce that Jack Lam attended the 3rd Annual Conference of Abacus Worldwide held in Amsterdam, Netherlands at the Renaissance Amsterdam Hotel from October 16 - 18, 2015. The conference attracted law and accounting firm partner-level delegates from 15 different countries across four regions: Asia Pacific, Europe Middle East and Africa, North America and Latin America. The educational program offered delegates a wealth of information on emerging financial and legal opportunities and issues, and provided a forum to share practices in practice management for professional service firms.

Through attendance at Abacus Worldwide conferences, Acutus fortifies its global business connections and enhances its ability to provide assistance, referrals and increased knowledge to clients with international business needs. In addition, clients of the firm will benefit directly from the relationships and resources that were exchanged between member firms of Abacus Worldwide at the Annual Conference.

“Abacus conferences create a forum for business exchange, meaningful partner-level interaction and innovative idea sharing. Delegates participate in educational sessions led by industry thought leaders, keeping members ahead of the curve on locally and international. We are truly pleased that Acutus participated in the 3rd Annual World Conference representing Singapore amongst 50 attendees from 15 countries”. Says Julio Gabay, President and CEO of Abacus.

“It was truly interesting to see an expansion in Abacus’ membership in a span of only one year. With the new and existing friendships that have been forged and/or renewed with fellow members during the conference, we are certain that our clients, especially those with international exposure, will gain immediate benefits from the knowledge and expertise shared by our fellow members.”
