

PRESS RELEASE

ACUTUS KICKS OFF THE NEW YEAR WITH TWO PROMOTIONS

We are pleased to announce that Lim Soh Yen has been appointed Deputy Managing Partner of the practice group with effect from 1 January 2021. Other than managing the firm's audit portfolios, Soh Yen's new roles shall include strategic planning, business developments and mentoring junior colleagues for promotions and leadership succession. Been with the firm since its inception, Soh Yen is the perfect choice for the role and we believe the group can benefit from her selfless contribution.

With effect from 1 January 2021, Lynn Ong has also been promoted to a Partner of the practice group. Other than playing a pivot role in insolvency and corporate recovery, Lynn will also contribute her experience in enhancing the framework for internal growth and optimizing efficiency on a day to day operations.

Soh Yen and Lynn's appointments are timely and demonstrate their commitments to the firm. Their versatility, breadth and depth and unparalleled track records have help the group to achieve our clear commitment to deliver quality and unrivalled services to our clients. Going forward they will play a vital part in the long-term future of the firm and I would like to wish them both the very best in their new roles.

*Mr. Jack Lam
Managing Partner*
