

ACUTUS KICKS OFF 2026 WITH A NEW PROMOTION

We are pleased to announce the promotion of Lydia Loh to the position of Director, with effect from 1 January 2026.

In her new role, Lydia will strengthen our corporate recovery and insolvency team through her appointment as an additional appointment holder. This promotion adds further depth and capacity to the team, enhancing our ability to manage existing engagements and support continued growth in insolvency and restructuring work.

Lydia had consistently demonstrated strong commitment in delivering high-quality outcomes for clients and stakeholders. Her experience and leadership will be a valuable resource to the firm and will reinforce our insolvency capability.

Please join us in congratulating Lydia on her well-deserved promotion.
